

Ramsey's Reprieve
copyright 2001
Christine Fraser Ramsey
(to be played like a 6/8 pipe march)

I composed this tune after surviving my first fiddle competition without suffering undue public humiliation; hence the title. The title could as well have been "Ramsey's Relief" or "Ramsey's Retreat", but I chose this one. Hopefully, there are not future humiliations in store, but one can never tell, in the competition setting!
